Letter from the President

Dear Mississippi Tennis Enthusiasts,

Thank you for the opportunity to serve you as the president of the board for USTA-Mississippi for 2025-2026. I am excited to work alongside MTA Board members, area directors, and the committee's chairs and members over the next couple years. With the excellent work of Executive Director, Russell Dendy, and the staff at the MTA, 2024 was a great year for tennis in Mississippi and the bar continues to be raised. The work at the MTA office benefits all the tennis players in the state.

Tennis in Mississippi continues to grow and excel. A major part of the continued growth are the people on the ground; coaches, volunteers, and other tennis players. The growth in the number of participants can be seen in several programs that are foundational in helping get new players onto the court. Tennis Apprentice, Ready to Rally, NJTL, and Tennis Month in May are all programs that have been successful in exposing new people to the sport. The year also saw Mississippi teams win USTA League National titles at both the 3.0 and 4.0 Men. Congratulations to these teams as well as those that have gone to Sectionals and represented our state.

As we move forward into 2025, people are looking to get healthy and here are a few ways to support Mississippi tennis:

1. Get involved in your local Community Tennis Association(CTA). If there is not an active one, call the office and they would be glad to help.
2. Introduce a group of youth or adults to tennis. If not confident in tennis teaching knowledge, take part in a coaches workshop.
3. Take a friend out and just play short court to get them involved and moving.

The board and staff at USTA-MS are here to serve the tennis community in Mississippi. Do not hesitate to contact me via email, davidkimball06@gmail.com. We all love to compete but the thing that keeps us coming back is the camaraderie. Make new friends and help grow tennis in Mississippi.

See you on the courts,
David Kimball

TENNIS FOUNDATION OF MS OFFICERS & DIRECTORS

Jimmie Coins, President • Tom Daglis, Vice President • Sarah Buffington, Secretary • Leigh Taylor, Treasurer • Jeffrey Farris, Immediate Past President

This year's Hall of Fame inductees, John C. Cox and S.B. Buck, have made a profound impact on the tennis landscape in Mississippi. Both men have not only achieved success on the court but have also played pivotal roles in growing and fostering the sport in their communities.

Born and raised in Cleveland, John C. Cox's tennis journey began with his father, Ancil Cox, and mentor Asa Atkinson. A lifelong resident of Cleveland, Cox has been a prominent figure in Mississippi tennis, first as a player, then as a coach, and perhaps most notably as a volunteer serving on every level of the USTA's committee and board structure. After earning a B.A. from Delta State University in 1996 and a J.D. from the University of Mississippi in 1999, Cox returned home to practice law. Alongside his wife Ashley and their three sons, two of whom are avid tennis players, he has continued his passion for tennis in both playing and coaching.

Cox's competitive success includes a long list of accolades, ranging from state championships to national tournaments. As a USTA Adult League captain for over 15 years, he has led 16 teams to state championships, while also playing and serving as a captain for the Mississippi Senior Cup (Callen Cup) team.

"Tennis has always been about community and competition for me," Cox shares. "The friendships and intense matches are what make the game so special. The life lessons we learn from tennis and competition are things we can take with us everywhere we go"

John Cox

His coaching efforts at Bayou Academy have also left a lasting legacy, growing the high school tennis program from 14 players to 53, and leading the school to 5A state team championships in 2022, 2023, and 2024. For those efforts, Cox has been named the MAIS Coach of the Year three times in addition to winning the 2023 USTA Southern No-Cut Starfish Award and the 2023 Mississippi Coach of the Year.

"Working with the kids has been the best part of my tennis journey," said Cox. "It's not always about who's the most popular in school or the most athletic. It's about hard work and reaching goals, and there's nothing more gratifying than seeing the smile that comes from a kid achieving something they didn't think possible."

Off the court, Cox has held leadership roles at USTA Mississippi, USTA Southern, and USTA National, serving as president of USTA Mississippi and spearheading various initiatives that expanded the sport's reach. Cox has served on numerous committees at each level of the USTA structure and still serves to this day.

He also founded the Cleveland Country

Club Delta Open, which has grown into one of the largest tennis tournaments in the state. His dedication to the sport as a volunteer has earned him some elite honors, including being Mississippi's Volunteer of the Year in 2018, and winning USTA Southern's Volunteer Service Award. Reflecting on his journey, Cox says, "It's been a privilege to give back to the sport that has given me so much. I want everyone to experience what I've experienced because of tennis. I hope

I've been able to contribute just a little bit in my time to this wonderful game"

S.B. Buck, born in Indianola in 1947, began playing tennis in 1973 alongside his brother. What started as a few men teaching themselves the game quickly grew into a larger movement within the community. In the same year, Buck organized the first Four Aces Tennis Tournament, which grew steadily in participation and popularity. His passion for tennis led him to be one of the founders of a community tennis program that has spanned over 50 years, touching countless lives.

Buck's contributions go far beyond tournaments. Alongside Birlette Jelks and Harold Hall, he co-founded the Four Aces Saturday Morning youth tennis program, one of the earliest NJTL programs in Mississippi. He fondly recalls traveling with 40 children to Natchez for a rally, which inspired him to help organize similar events in other cities. "Watching the kids get excited about tennis is what kept me going," he says. Over the years, Buck's NJTL efforts brought him into contact with legends like Venus and Serena Williams, and he even had the opportunity to help host their youth clinics. One such event in Lafayette, Louisiana, brought together tennis icons including Mary Joe Fernández, MaliVai Washington, and the Jensen brothers, underscoring Buck's pivotal role in youth tennis development.

Despite facing significant racial challenges in tennis, especially during the 1970s and 1980s, Buck's perseverance never wavered. From being sidelined during tournaments to having his teams moved to a higher level after each local championship, Buck and his teammates continued to play and win. "Racism was everywhere, but we let our tennis do the talking," Buck reflects, remembering a pivotal tournament in Clarksdale where he and his partner overcame adversity to win the championship. His personal accounts of these challenges not only speak to his resilience but also highlight the larger struggle for equality in tennis during that era.

Beyond tennis, Buck's leadership extends into other areas of the community. He managed a steel plant for 25 years, ran Buck's Restaurant for over two decades—where he had the opportunity to meet figures like former President Barack Obama—and today, he manages the Cypress Hills Tennis Club, helping to keep the sport thriving in the area. He also serves as the head coach of St. Joseph High School's tennis team, leading them to three consecutive state playoff appearances and multiple girls' singles titles.

Buck's long-standing commitment to tennis is well-known across the Delta, where any tennis figure you come across is familiar with him. "From playing in tournaments across 12 states to coaching youth, tennis has been a constant in my life," Buck says. His journey from organizing grassroots community programs to mentoring youth at the highest level showcases a lifetime of dedication to the sport, overcoming adversity, and inspiring future tennis players.

Together, John C. Cox and S.B. Buck exemplify what it means to be lifelong ambassadors of tennis. Their impact on the sport, both in their communities and across the state, has been immeasurable. As the 2024 Hall of Fame inductees, their stories serve as a testament to the power of passion, perseverance, and leadership in tennis.

For the 24th consecutive year, USTA Mississippi handed out college scholarships to two deserving high school seniors that have demonstrated excellence both on and off the court.

This year's winners of the USTA Mississippi College Scholarships are Julianna Jojoa-Portilla of Greenville, and Weston Kennedy of Mize.

Julianna Jojoa-Portilla, a standout student and tennis player from Saint Joseph Catholic High School, is this year's female winner. Julianna's journey is a testament to her hard work, dedication, and the powerful role tennis has played in her life.

Julianna's love for tennis began at the age of four, playing with her family on community courts with hand-me-down racquets. Over the years, her passion and skill for the sport grew, culminating in numerous accolades. She became her high school's varsity tennis captain as a junior and led her team to victory in the high school Tennis State Championship in 2023.

Beyond the tennis courts, Julianna has excelled academically and demonstrated a strong commitment to her community. In addition to carrying over a 4.0 GPA and being a member of the 30+ ACT Club, she participated in the MIT Introduction to Technology, Engineering, and Science program and was actively involved in the Hugh O'Brian Youth (HOBY) Leadership program. Her dedication to her studies and community service exemplifies her well-rounded character.

Julianna is also a proud member of the Greenville CTA NJTL, a community youth tennis program offering free lessons and leadership programs. Since joining in 2021, she has received training from skilled coaches and the opportunity to partner with other talented players, enriching her tennis journey and personal growth.

Julianna's personal statement reveals the profound impact tennis has had on her life and aspirations. "Tennis taught me self-discipline and confidence, values that have been unmatched in my life. These lessons extended to every aspect of my life, from relationships and school dedication to facing new challenges with courage," she shares. She also highlights the importance of perseverance, saying, "Even on days when I felt unmotivated, I would push myself to the courts, reminding myself that effort is always worthwhile. This mindset led me to win the tiebreaker in the state championship, a moment of accomplishment that I strive for in all my endeavors." Reflecting on the broader impact of the sport, she adds, "Tennis has been my vehicle, teaching me resilience and grounding me in essential life principles. It has become the foundation of who I am, equipping me with the tools and strength to succeed."

Julianna will be attending Mississippi State University in the fall, majoring in Biology/Pre-Med. Inspired by her family's journey and the support of her community, she aspires to become a rural physician, providing accessible and equitable healthcare to underserved communities. Her dream is to one day open a medical facility that offers a variety of specialties, ensuring patients feel accepted and understood.

Julianna's story is one of perseverance, passion, and the transformative power of tennis. We are proud to support her journey and excited to see the remarkable impact she will undoubtedly make in the future.

Weston Kennedy, a dedicated and passionate tennis player from Mize, Mississippi, is this year's male recipient of the USTA Mississippi College Scholarship. Weston's journey with tennis began in elementary school, inspired by his older sister, a high school tennis player. He recalls, "I begged her to play. She taught me the basics and I was hooked." His relentless enthusiasm led Coach Joy Schaub to invite him to practice with the high school team in sixth grade, eventually making him the team manager, a role that made him feel significant and included.

Weston's high school career at Mize High School is marked by consistent dedication and remarkable achievements. Playing #1 Boys Doubles from 9th to 11th grade, he and his partner aimed for the State Championship during his junior year. Despite an undefeated record, they fell short at state, a testament to the fierce competition from larger schools. Reflecting on this experience, Weston shared, "We were heartbroken, of course, that we didn't win and to lose our last match as partners. This did not dampen my love for tennis though!"

In his senior year, Weston transitioned to playing Mixed Doubles and concluded his high school career with a victorious match. His perseverance and love for tennis have shaped him significantly. He expressed, "Tennis gave an insecure kid confidence, and it taught me patience and discipline. It gave me a sense of belonging and the greatest tennis family ever."

Beyond the tennis court, Weston excelled academically, graduating as Valedictorian with a perfect 4.0 GPA and a notable ACT score of 34. He has been honored as a Star Student, MS Scholar, and was inducted into the MHS Hall of Fame. His extracurricular involvement includes leadership roles in the high school band, student council, and Beta Club. Weston also dedicated time to community service, volunteering at the Wolf Pond Animal Sanctuary, participating in Operation Christmas Child, and contributing to local clean-up efforts.

Weston's commitment to tennis extended to the Laurel Country Club, where he took lessons from Coach Ben Berry and joined the junior USTA team. "My participation at LCC set me up for great success on my high school tennis team," he noted. The relationships he built and the skills he honed during this time have been instrumental in his growth as a player and individual.

As Weston prepares to begin his studies in computer science at the University of Southern Mississippi, he remains dedicated to tennis. While he won't be part of a college team, his passion for the sport endures. He aspires to create opportunities for young athletes in small towns like his own, hoping to promote tennis and support its growth in Mississippi. "Tennis is now a huge part of my life and I am confident that it will be for many years to come," he remarked. Weston's story is a testament to how sports can profoundly impact personal development, build community, and inspire future generations.

NET GENERATION JUNIOR TEAM TENNIS

How does it work?

USTA Junior Team Tennis is the largest youth league in the country, and allows kids ages 6-18 to form teams with up to 16 of their friends at the Beginner, Intermediate or Advanced Levels. Junior Team Tennis is a level-based environment that promotes individual growth, social development, and life skills.

Those that advance out of the local play have an opportunity to progress to State and the Section Invitational events. Teams that win the most total games in the entire team match are named the match winner, so remember, in Junior Team Tennis, EVERY GAME COUNTS!

USTA Jr Team Tennis Highlights

JTT has 3 leagues and 3 championships; Spring Doubles League, Summer and Fall League.

- Spring league kicks off in February with the State Championship May 3-4.
- Summer League starts in June and the State Championship August 1-3.
- Fall league starts in September and the State Championship November 22-23.
